We must be better off, we must be better off alone,
Than stuck here in this clever mess of a life.
But the ties we share are too strong to sever,
And it looks like we'll be together.
The story, the story has been around forever.

You just don't get it, you just don't get it at all,
It's less about you and more about the way that we say
goodbye before we even say hello.
We even start to believe that it's the way that it should be,
Just ignore those thoughts of reason in the back of our heads.
(Forget them, forget them, forget them all)

You left me with nothing, you left me with nothing but the fast,
Beating of my heart.
Racing in the back, as your glance caught mine in the car,
That collided with mine.
Let's see how fast we can go.

You just don't get it, you just don't get it at all,
It's less about you and more about the way that we say
goodbye before we even say hello.
We even start to believe that it's the way that it should
be,
Just ignore those thoughts of reason in the back of our heads.
(Forget them, forget them, forget them all)
