It wouldn't take as much time to work if we had both felt the same

Its a brand new day but i still feel the same nothing ever changes but the day

Im sorry for all the time that I left you in the dark and your last remark it went straight threw my heart you're still my favorite part about this town maybe I'll get over this or maybe i will land facedown and i can't move past the thought that you love me and i can't get by the fact that you don't im not so used to being alone i'm so used to being alone

Cuz you don't you don't you don't you don't love me
You don't you don't you don't love me yet
I'll stay up late at night
To see that you got home alright
I'll tell myself to tell you that you're always on my mind I'll open up my window and blow you just one kiss look into the night thinking that i must have missed and if you ever get it can you let me know you did I'd get to sleep much better knowing you know how i have been now i'm sitting all alone here by my phone I've been sitting here for hours and still no call Something slow and i'm still alone
But tomorrow will be different

But tomorrow will be different!

You don't you don't
You don't you don't love me
You don't you don't

You don't love me yet
(But tomorrow will be different)
I'll stay up late at night
To see that you got home alright
I'll tell myself to tell you
That you're always on my mind
(But tomorrow will be different)
