Monday I wake up thinking of you
Tuesday you're my favourite call
When it comes to Wednesday our song's on the radio
Thursday is the longest of all
We light up Friday night like a movie scene
Saturday we're floating on air
I'm wishing Sunday would never come to an end
'Cause we know you've gotta go again

But the miles and days
Away mixed with impatience that I cannot explain (?)
And I'll be brave
Countdown the moments 'til you're back in my arms

You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday love
You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday
Everyday

I do a double-take think I see your face
You surround me, I hear your voice
I smell your perfume and my lips can taste
The kiss you left me when you went away
Now if the future plays out like this perfect dream
And these boundaries all disappear
Live out the fairytales and the fantasies
That we've always wanted to see

But the miles and days
Away mixed with impatience that I cannot explain (?)
And I'll be brave
Countdown the moments 'til you're back in my arms

You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday love
You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday
Everyday

You're my 3-6-5
You're my 24/7

Our love don't miss a minute
You're the reason that I'm livin'
Oh oh oh
Everyday

But the miles and days away
Baby
And I'll be brave
'Til I see you
'Til I see your face

You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday love
You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday
Everyday

You're my 3-6-5
You're my 24/7
Our love don't miss a minute
You're the reason that I'm livin'
Oh oh oh
Everyday

You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday love
You're my everyday love (everyday love)
You're my everyday
Everyday

Everyday love
Everyday
Everyday love
