Feel the wood grain on the floor
Passion burns behind the door
Crying out drove me insane
Silhouettes they sigh
Baby we're on fire

I feel the blood rushing from my heart to the tip of my veins
Baby we're drowning
Let the sweat carry us away
There's nothing like the thought of feeling so reckless
Caught in the undertow
Don't let go

Baby I'm lost
Baby I'm found
Now that we're flying high
I never want to come back down
I can hear you bursting with energy
As I watch our worlds collide
Just like a drug
I'm addicted to you now
Damn I feel so alive
So alive

Feel the sunlight creeping in trace the outline of your skin lipstick red is all over my sheets
Crazy but desire calls her right back to me

I feel the blood rushing from my heart to the tip of my
veins
Everytime I look into your eyes I feel you've gone so far away
There's nothing like the thought of feeling so
reckless?
Caught in the undertow

Don't let go

Baby I'm lost

Baby I'm found
Now that we're flying high
I never want to come back down
I can hear your breath feel your energy
As I watch our worlds collide
Just like a drug
I'm addicted to you now
Damn, I feel so alive
So alive

Baby I'm lost
Baby I'm found
I can hear your breath feel your energy
Just like a drug

Baby I'm lost
I can hear your breath feel your energy
Just like a drug
