I wanna know why can't I
Take a chance just to prove
My love to you
Don't tell me I'm too late
That your heart's gone for good
All I want you to say to me ohh

I'm worth every risk you have to take
He was just a mistake
You hear my voice when he says that he loves you
Baby just walk away

Every single day think what I could do for you
And every single time we're together it's right
Baby the way you touch, the way you smile
The things making me go wild
Every way you are is every single way
Every single way

He's playing this like a game
And your love is his pawn
I've always been there for you
And I know that you're confused
But don't settle for what's in front of you
My heart can hear you call

I'm worth every risk you have to take
He was just a mistake
You hear my voice when he says that he loves you
Now baby just walk away

Every single day think what I could do for you
And every single time we're together it's right
Baby the way you touch, the way you smile
The things making me go wild
Every way you are is every single way
Every single way

We can share the night until the morning
Bodies making fire to keep us warm
We can escape inside the moment

Every inch of you I know it
It's just me and you
Ohhh

Every single day think what I could do for you
And every single time we're together it's right
Baby the way you touch, the way you smile
The things making me go wild
Every way you are is every single way

Every single day think what I could do for you
And every single time we're together it's right
Baby the way you touch, the way you smile
The things making me go wild
Every way you are is every single way
Is every single way
