Ohhh
Ohhh
Yeah, you're worth the wait

The things that you do
No, there ain't an app for it
Girl you're so cool
Like a Himalayan summit
Baby who knew
That we would just fit
Like this
Think me and you
Could be a hit
A hit

And I've loved so blind
Now I'm loving you lasik
I've done complicated
But your love is so basic
You feel right
Feels like you're supposed to
Yeah, you burn hotter than the middle of June

Yeah, you're worth the wait
Yeah, you're worth the wait
Them other girls taste like OJ and toothpaste
But you, you taste like birthday cake
Yeah, you're worth the wait

Well I had to go through
All of the disappointment
Just to get to
Right to your perfect lovin'
How can I lose
When we just fit
Like this
Baby our groove
It could be a hit
A hit

And our love is so blind

Now I'm loving you lasik
I've done complicated
But your love is so basic
You feel right
Feels like you're supposed to
Yeah, you burn hotter than the middle of June

Yeah, you're worth the wait
Yeah, you're worth the wait
Them other girls taste like OJ and toothpaste
But you, you taste like birthday cake

I thought it was love before
But I, now I know for sure
And there's no mystery
About you and me
And I've erased my mind of my past lives
And all the other girls I thought were my type
But you were worth the wait
So no, you're not late
No, you're not late

Yeah, you're worth the wait
Them other girls taste like OJ and toothpaste
