Now, look at what we've got
Time is running out
I blame it all on you
It's time that I
Put the record straight
It's already too late
You're not the man
I thought I knew

I'm laying down my cards
My diamonds spades and hearts
Cause everytime we're in this game
You're gambling with my heart
I have to fold this hand
Cause I won't lose ones again
It doesn't matter what you've got
I'm laying down my cards

You told me I should stay
But I am not okay
Crawling on my knees
I guess it's fair to say
That I am through
But then I look at you
And your ace is up your sleeve

I'm laying down my cards
My diamonds spades and hearts
Cause everytime we're in this game
You're gambling with my heart
I have to fold this hand
Cause I won't lose ones again
It doesn't matter what you've got
I'm laying down my

I got a call from someone
You know well
And she told me 'bout
All sorts of things
That you don't wanna hear,
Then I found
Numbers, names and cute little notes

In your pocket, why?
It doesn't matter what you say

I'm laying down my cards
My diamonds spades and hearts
Cause everytime we're in this game
You're gambling with my heart
I have to fold this hand
I won't lose ones again
It doesn't matter what you've got

I'm laying down my cards
My diamonds spades and hearts
Cause everytime we're in this game
You're gambling with my heart
Cause I won't lose ones again
It doesn't matter what you've got
I'm laying down my cards
