Climb aboard a ship that is sinking
Exactly what is it you were thinking?
Choking on a pill that you swallowed
To escape another empty tomorrow now

There is nobody here at all
I've heard it said there
Is no love beyond the fall
The truth has lied to make amends
How many times should I stand up
To fall back down again

Amends

Have you noticed that your

Life's moving faster?
Exactly what is it you were after?
Are you praying to a god that is hollow?
To escape a world you know
You can't follow now

There is nobody here at all
I've heard it said there
Is no love beyond the fall
The truth has lied to make amends
How many times should I stand up
To fall back down again

Amends, amends, amends
