I've gotta do this my way,
gotta make my own sense of this life
You don't have the answers and I don't have the time
Yeah I've got a history but I'm not looking to be saved
You couldn't fucking save me anyway.

I gotta do what I gotta do
To keep from ending up like you
One more submissive fuck who swallowed all the rules
I've got no respect for any law that takes what's mine
from birth
I'm a citizen and I punch a clock but I'm fucking human first
Call the authorities
And I'm calling fraud
There are no untouchables
Not one.

Inside every pig there hides a kid whose feet never filled his fathers shoes
A broken child who missed every chance he had to pay his fucking dues
I'm nothing without reason
And there's something that just isn't right
I created all my own gods,
In the image of my tainted fucking self.

I gotta do what I gotta do
To keep from ending up like you.
One more submissive fuck who swallowed all the rules.
I've got no respect for any law that takes what's mine
from birth.
I'm a citizen and I punch a clock but I'm fucking human
first.

You wear the face of some high authority,
But underneath it you're rotten.
Just like me.
