"When the mode of the music changes, the walls of the city shake." A single act of defiance is a crime. When we continue our crimes we'll decide the laws. No longer will we stand alone shouting hearts out, hearing echoes, solving nothing. Don't throw a brick, we'll build a wall and bring the old one crashing down. Don't a pick, we'll start a way because together we're unstoppable. These songs we sing the same with different words on different days and find when we fight alone, we all fall just the same. One plus one is three with our powers combined. And the foundation will shake when our hearts beat as one
