You fell apart again
Dedication is something that comes with desire Dedication and commitment are things that cannot be manufactured for posterity
I see through you
You are an open book
It isn't about your words and it's not about how good it is It's all about what you're willing to give up to keep it I saw it before you said a word
I can't blame you People grow regress
But I'm willing to accept finality

Racing a fading image wastes my time and wears me down
But I will leave you with something more concrete than your copouts and indecision
You will never be part of this again
You used up your last chance Maybe someday you'll learn that victory is not as sweet when you don't know what it's like to be down I'm still pushing and I'll be the first to call and remind you when things still aren't going your way
