All you do is sit there and cry, kiss your ass goodbye, tell me what's wrong and tell me the reasons why, can't do the confession get rid of your depression, being with you, yeah you're my obsession. A bottle of liquor will do you just fine, to put all of your bad feelings behind,
cause loving you is all I do, whenever you're down I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you.
So you wine and you bitch about things of the past, you'd run any distance for the things you don't have, you're never happy and I just can't see why, there salt on your pillow and tears in your eyes, if you just look around you'll find what you need, cause things aren't always as bad as they seem. I'll do what I can to see you through, whenever you're down I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you.
All you do is sit there and cry, kiss your ass goodbye,
feelings behind,
cause loving you is all I do, whenever you're down I'll
be there for
you, I'll be there for you, I'll be there for you, I'll be
you, I'll be there for you.
