A lonely morning light evolves to sunrise
This noise seems not to be inside my head
Our perfect dream was broken by the siren
How can you know if you're already dead?

Again and again you shoot at the sky
We always hurt the ones we love
We always hurt the ones we love
Again and again you shoot at the sky
The stars are just the bullet holes
The stars are just the bullet holes

Talk to me, laugh at me, smile like there's nothing happening
Like there's no guns aimed at us, no falling bombs around
Take my hand and close your eyes, don't be scared and trust me
We'll get through this

This is the end
Where everything that meant so much is lost
This war is only thing we understand
Do you believe that there's a reason
For everything that happens to us
I don't believe...

Well I always tried to think
That everything is part of master plan
So it doesn't depend on me
But if there is a reason for killing each other
For lives to end so soon, then teach me to survive

Please teach me how to kill
I know all this place comes to an end
Please teach me how to die
I know all this place comes to an end
I want to know the truth
Is there someone to guide us through this mess?
I don't believe, that we are born to suffer
And die with no answers at all

This is the end
Where everything that meant so much is lost
This war is only thing we understand
Do you believe that there's a reason
For everything that happens to us
I don't believe
