Ready, lets go.

you back the fuck up and you don't know me, that's why i.

take a bad look i can find this damp air measures its time, so take a bad fall, its a blur. this cranial disaster is a blend of million concrete rivers, the everyday scene.

this shy way life you made, just carry on and don't ask me how you find the pill, it feels so good and im greedy.

silver a silver fairy.

letting your thoughts sway and hiding the secrets.

and life's enough, no way out, i can set sail in the secrets i taste.

You can't fight it now, as much as i want to know.
Bitch this brain, silence and everything disappears, this new birth.
