"So Close Yet So Far"

Visit yourself and tell me how you feel
Always I knew what you meant but now I don't know I see the trembling veil of your soul and tears that never dry...never dry
Woe is me - sometimes I can't sleep at all
So close - the distance still grows
And sickness, our foe, still blows
I noticed your fragile thoughts and stars that changed their colours
We sat together so far away...so far away
Yesterday I sang a melody of autumn
In your hearse we'll rest tonight
Tr  nensaat am Seelengrab
Das Leben zerrinnt
Ein Tropfen im Wind
Narbenworte, Bruderpein
Ach! Wer err  t mein tr  bes Sein?
So close...yet so far...yet so far...
