And just to think that you almost had me thinking of the wedding ring
When now I see that to you it never really would have meant a thing
Promise baby what's the use I've simply got to turn you loose
I'm sorry it's sad but it's true
So the only thing to do is chug one up for you
And say goodbye and say goodbye

I used to think I remember thinkin' when you were really something fine
But that's all gone ever since I found I couldn't trust you all the time
I kept on hopin' things would change that things would somehow rearrange
But instead they kept on getting worse
So the only thing to do is chug one up for you
And say goodbye and say goodbye

Don't keep in touch don't write a letter to me baby every month or so I wish you luck but if you don't have any baby then I don't want to know
We tried so hard to make it last but who can resurrect the past
And baby that all really goes to show
That the only thing to do is chug one up for you
And say goodbye and say goodbye
