(verse 1)

Yeah, you told me that its time to grow up
Blah blah blah (shut up)
Youre just afraid ill be better than you
Im just a kid
Im allowed having fun
Doing the things that you never thoght to do
You never tought to do
Yeah

(verse 2)

So you forgot you could take me
Control me
Restrain Me
well, i know
my self control
The limits about me
Obtain what you might overcome all around me
Im telling myself
That I dont need anybody else
Im doing fine on my own
But then again
Maybe im missing something
At least thats what their telling me

(sorry i dont know the rest of the song... if u can correct me, i would appreciate it!!! thanks!!!!!!)
