"Mexican Standoff"

Waiting standstill, nobody moves
Nobody wants to rock the boat and miss the chances Straight face, deep breath, my hand on the gun
I wonder how I can go on this way
This balance won't last

Now we all know the game
Once we move on we can't never go back, never

I call it mexican standoff whoa oh
You make a move and it's all gone whoa oh
I'll be the first one to die if I call her tonight
No way, I will never make this right
Call it a blame game whoa oh
Where everybody wants the same whoa oh
If I just get out the door
Would you leave her alone or keep on pretending I don't know

Eyes closed, blindfold, avoiding the crime
Everybody bets the life to win the same prize

Now we are all involved, and we know we will never go back, never

I call it mexican standoff whoa oh
You make a move and it's all gone whoa oh
I'll be the first one to die if I call her tonight
No way, I will never make this right
Call it a blame game whoa oh
Where everybody wants the same whoa oh
If I just get out the door
Would you leave her alone or keep on pretending I
don't know

Somebody breaks the silence only one of us will survive will I manage to move faster, tonight

I call it mexican standoff whoa oh
You make a move and it's all gone whoa oh

I'll be the first one to die if I call her tonight
No way, I will never make this right
Call it a blame game whoa oh
Where everybody wants the same whoa oh
If I just get out the door
Would you leave her alone or keep on pretending I
don't know
