Every night and every day you go on the same old way
Do you have to keep reminding me she's gone now
You keep saying I was wrong but I knew that all along
So be quiet mind we stayed away too long now
Now that she's no longer mine you think of her all the time
If you'd let me be I might forget her somehow
Yes I've lost my love it's true do I have to lose you too

Please be quiet mind I want to go to sleep now [ piano ]
It's almost breaking dawn must you still go on and on We'll just have to learn to get along without her
For the only thing you do is to drive me out of you
So please be quiet mind let's hear no more about her
Now that she's no longer mine...
