I gonna put my pellet down
And rip the skin right off my mouth
It seems to be a part we can make connection/puddle we can make an Eggshell?)
Someone's thrown the wires out

I'm stuck in a place where all the teachers can't be trusted
Everything revolves around their appetite
Decisions become more abnormal
The more attention it gets paid
I'm enrolled as a potter of the first edition
Without the arrangement of the errors made

Something started happening to the people I love
None of them have spoken to me since
The way they used to back when I was just a little boy
It's different

My poor cities gone (my post it is gone?)
Rapidly beating the window
With my head
It takes time
Why can't I get anyones attention
It takes time

I get too caught up
When counting all the things I can't do right
I'm just around the corner from the crucifixion
Just around the corner from the crucifixion

Something started happening to the people I love
None of them have been close to me since
The way they used to back when I was just a little boy
Deliver him

My poor cities gone (my post it is gone?)
Rapidly beating the window
With my hands
Why can't I get anyones attention
(It takes time)

Down there
(It takes time)
We can't prepare for war
And prevent it at the same time
(It takes time)
Know I've chosen the sign
I don't know where the line is Kos it takes time, get it all at once x4
