It's strange, it's not like anything we've faced before
It seems following us somehow

Of course!

The spell we cast with Buffy, must have released some primal evil.
That's come back seeking, I'm not sure what.

Willow! look through the chronicle's, for some reference to a warrior beast.

I've got to warn Buffy, there's every chance she might be next.

And Xander! help willow and try not to bleed on my couch I just had it steam cleand

No wait..
