2 words = I'm sorry
They won't make me forget
4 years of bullshit but still I'll never regret

So many misconceptions and still so many lies
I have moved on with myself
Why can't you just get a life

2 months of anguish
Felt like I was dead
Am All bound together to stick that dagger in my chest

And now you think you've got a point to prove
But I'm so much smarter than you
You think I'd just give up and lose
But I'm so much stronger than you
You think I'd watch my name to shame

When I'm the one who hate you
You think you've got a point to prove
I'll just show em I'm louder than you

1 time = too many
You made me feel so small
This time it's not me who will be taking the fall

1 time = too many
In my dreams you shared
This time is the last time I'll think of you and care

2 words = I'm sorry
I'm still waiting to hear

2 words = FUCK YOU
I'd love to scream right in you ear!
