Everything is cracking me out tonight
When I'm feeling so lost in this world, alright
I can hear you tossing and turning tonight
It keeps my dreams from coming, yeah

Now I've started to toss and turn myself
It's stranger now in this here foreign house
I feel awake but I can't control my mind
Nightmares fill my thoughts baby

Wake me up
Wake me up
Wake me up from this dream

Screaming out in the middle of the night

I'm begging please rise up the morning light
Shadows are here creeping in my life
Wake me up from this nightmare, yeah

Sleepwalking outside of my head
My mind is floating while my body lies dead
Held tight by the covers of this dream
I can feel it coming over me

Wake me up
Wake me up
Wake me up from this dream

Wake me up
Wake me up
Wake me up from this dream
From this dream [x2]
