There's not much glam about the English weather,
nothing left keeping us together

Sunshine on a rainy day, makes me, wanna move away, think I've got it sorted, gonna get myself deported.

I'm considering a move to LA (he's considering a move
to LA) [x3]

Hang around with Axl Rose, buy myself some brand new clothes.

Everything's gonna be just fine, I hear the murder rate,
it's in decline

I'll do me some relaxing, maybe grab a piece of action.

I'm considering a move to LA (he's considering a move
to LA) [x3]

When I get off that plane, the first thing I'm going to do is strip naked to the waist

And ride my Harley Davidson up and down sunset strip.

Hmm, I might even get a tattoo.

My problems are never gonna find me, I'm not sending one letter or even a postcard back

I'm drinking Hennessy with Morrissey, on a beach, out of reach, somewhere very far away

I'm considering a move to LA (he's considering a move
to LA) [x3]
