This is only going to get worse.

(I can see the fear running through your eyes)

At gunpoint in a darkened room

(hope to make it out alive)

Will you change, will you survive

(hope to see you alive)

If you change, will you survive?

The last escape plan is quite worrying to me.

Will you run, will you die?

Run a little faster.

They've walked in so casually, intentions are less than great

As the pulse increases the blood flows

But will you stand up, can you stand?

The last escape plan is.

(the last escape plan is)

The last escape plan is quite worrying to me

Will you run, or will you die?

We'll run a little faster.

Run a little faster
