intro

ay it's crazy I never thought I'd actually be singing a song about this...

But ugh...It actually aint so bad cause ugh...look...
I got something to say lady..uh huh.. listen...

say I wanted it all so I got it all and I kept it all and I lost it all ugh say I was the smooth brotha say I was the cool lover but I had to decide You see what meant more...more say cause this train was a pullin out of the station and there was no way I wasn't gone make it lovin

Chorus

I'm gone miss all of your love
No matter where I end up
You gone miss all of my love
No matter where I end up

verse

say I know the pain I've seen the rain and I held your hand girl through a brighter day and I was the heart mender say I was far from a pretender love but I was moving on and you'd soon discover that

say cause this train was a pullin out of the station and there was no way I wasn't gone make it no

Chorus

I'm gone miss all of your love
No matter where I end up
You gone miss all of my love
No matter where I end up

Bridge

(and when I don't have the words to say) say you and I learned so much I just wanna say um...hum (and every time I think about it...I have no regrets)

Chorus (x2)

say I'll never forget it...um huh um huh...Oh Oh yea yea your love...ugh
