one thousand lines i've been teh one to change in time believe this, i lost feeling , lost feeling don't question that we've seen cloudy days and been blind by sunset and all that's been proved is i still can't trust you regree, i lost feeling lost feeling don't question this morning i felt like i would break from mistakes i never made but i won't suffer for anyone anymore tonight was dark as sin it's as if nothing's changed be straight up what would be light? yes, i've been in for days i'm still blind by sunset don't question
