Do you ever wonder what sky I'm lying under
Do you ever think of me?

Does your heart remember how we used to feel when it used to think of me

All I need to know when you're on your own

Do you miss what might have been?

World don't stop turning

Stars don't stop falling down in my world of make believe

Do you ever think of me ?

We got different stories and all our never endings now

Even though your heart is free , Still my heart won't let me be

Do you ever think of me ?

So we're on different shores do we just drift away

Do the memories fall like a driving rain ?

All I need to know when you're on your own

Do you miss what might have been ?

World don't stop turning

believe

Do you ever think of me ?

We got different stories and all our never endings now

Even though your heart is free, Still my heart won't let me be

Do you ever think of me ?

Do you ever think of me?

Do you ever think of me ?
