Just when it seems liked the world the got a little colder
Just when it seems liked I was walking all alone
Then like an angel on my shoulder
You were there to bring me home yeah yeah
I've been touched by angel tonight
To my soul you breathe new life

I found a healing in your eyes a feeling words can describe
With the love
You make everything alright
From the dark you give me light
Giving me my strength to fight
Baby I found healing in your eyes
I've been sent to find-I found healing in your eyes

In love there is no reason
Just like the wind in changing seasons yeah yeah
For when I'm in you arms you got believing
That we would always be this way
I've been touched by an angel tonight

You breathe all my dreams to life

I found a healing in your eyes a feeling words can
describe
With the love
You make everything alright
From the dark you give me light
Giving me my strength to fight
Baby I found healing in your eyes
I've been sent to find-I found healing in your eyes

Feels like I can kiss the sky
When you're by my side
You make everything alright yeah

I found a healing in your eyes a feeling words can
describe
With the love
You make everything alright
From the dark you give me light

Giving me my strength to fight
Baby I found healing in your eyes
I've been sent to find-I found healing in your eyes
