I've seen that look a million times
Disenchanted eyes
I know it's love you doubt, but you're lost without it
You don't have to say a word

You pray for a sign
You hope for one glimpse of heaven
But I know where all is forgiven
Let's go where we know love is alive

The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
This love can change a life forever
His love will piece us back together
Oh, this love, oh yeah
This is the way, this is the life, this love
It's nothing that we could ever earn

It's unconditional, yeah
It's free because cost Him everything
It's the love we need
It's our road to freedom

It's power to heal
Let's go where we now love is alive
Come take a drink from the fountain
So don't underestimate God's love

This love can change a life forever
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together

This is the way, this is the life, this love
This love can change us for the better
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love

Oh, nano, nano, nano, nanoo,

Let go where we know
Let go where we know love is alive, alive

This love can change a life forever
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love
This love can change us for the better

The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love
This love

This love
This love
This love
This love
This is the way
This love
