Was waiting for my world to change to finally feel like me engaged .rainbows cross the sky and I'm barely even question why too cut up and laughter to live it I, am simply searching for the truth honesty no need for proof love to cry and make me say the one who's losing .me never want it that to be But the're no time better than now there's no time better than now I change my hair with the moon change my night let the breezes blue I love to cry and make mistake the one who's losin .me never wanted that to be
But the're no time better than now

You give yourself for me and .drug you alone got a weed .to me and I'm existing 'cause it feels so wrong it just stands for me and hurting for making me so strong time time time
please you and me I give my mind all the time every setting sun .the sunrise remember there's when we are throw when you think of me and you know that I'll always adore you But the're no time better than now
there's no time better than now there's no time no there's no time. there's no time better than now, better than now, better than now, better than now ohh
