I laid my lips on your hair,
To follow you trough.
I left my heart in your bed
To wake up with you.
I gave my heart and myself
To all the things than never happened
And the things that never will.

It took me by surprise,
You saw trough my disguise.
So this is how it feels,
To be head over heals.

Chorus:

All I wanted is for us to be;
What I see in you, you don't see in me.
All I wanted is for you to see
How I neded you so desperatly.

And then I heard your cries,
I had to close my eyes.
And then I heard your screams
And it crushed my dreams... but I couldn't stop.

Chorus:

All I wanted is for us to be;
What I see in you, you don't see in me.
All I wanted is for you to see
How I needed you so desperatly.
I couldn't stop.
