"I Dreamt Of You"

It's one AM and I still can't sleep, I'm dreaming of you, with visions in my head, and all I want is to kill you now, your memory, so maybe I might sleep,

I am suffering, and I'm without you, wishing I wasn't,

Feels that it's my holy life, and I can't find a way to be liked, why am I so blind, let me go, I can't find me, let me stay,
I'm dying inside of what I used to be, now what do I have left?

We can't find the parts now, better start building a new one(the puzzle left unfinished)

I am melting inside, crying,
I am falling inside, screaming,
I am wanting inside, wishing,
I am dying inside, sighing.
