"Let It Be Forever"

In a world of broken hearts, love is just a word
Used so often, what it means is blurred
People grow so hungry for a love they can believe
And will they find it here in you and me?

Oh, you know you must be careful
If it's love you're promising
You can never, never, ever speak it lightly
It should cost you everything

If you're gonna call it love
Oh, then let it be forever, let it be forever
If you're gonna call it love
Oh, then let it be forever, oh, yeah

Love has come from God and in this love we share
People see an image of Him there
It can be an invitation that leads to deeper truth
The kind of love they find in me and you

Oh, but we can be a witness
Right before their eyes
A living love that's rooted in
The very love of Christ

If you're gonna call it love
Oh, then let it be forever, oh, then let it be forever
If you're gonna call it love
Oh, then let it be forever, oh, yeah

Well, I don't know what this world may think of love
Oh, but let our hearts remain true
To the notion that love goes beyond just emotion
Into faith, into hope, into trust

Call it love
Won't let it be forever, oh won't you let it be, let it be?
If you're gonna call it love
Won't let it be forever?

Call it love
Call it love

Call it love
Won't let it be forever?

It's got to be forever
Let it be
