"Never Givin' Up"

You tell me that you think you get too far from heaven,
You think you're out of reach from these arms of love.
Why would someone stay around, after all the things you've done?

Remember I'm the king of the broken hearted,
I've always been a friend to the wounded soul.
Yes, I've walked this world, I know, Just how deep the pain can go.

Oh yeah.

I will always love you, can't you see.

Well just look into my eyes and believe.

CHORUS

When the sky opens up rain on you, I'll be there with open arms to cover you. Don't give up now, There's nothing that I wouldn't do, Never Givin'
up on you. Never Givin' up, Never Givin' up, Never
givin' up, Never Givin' up.

You don't need to fear, I won't ever leave you.
I have been beside you all this time.
Through you silence and your tears, you've always been a child of mine.

There's a new day dawning, can't you see?
Just open up your heart and believe.

CHORUS

When the sky opens up rain on you, I'll be there with open arms to cover you. Don't give up now, There's nothing that I wouldn't do, Never Givin'
up on you. Never Givin' up, Never Givin' up, Never
givin' up, Never Givin' up.
