The wind is moving but I am standing still
A life of pages waiting to be filled
A heart that's hopeful, a head that's full of dreams
But this becoming is harder than it seems Feels like I'm

Looking for a reason, roaming through the night
To find my place in this world, my place in this world
Not a lot to lean on, I need Your light to help me
Find my place in this world, my place in this world

If there are millions down on their knee
Among the many can you still hear me?
Hear me asking where do I belong
Is there a vision oh that I can call my own?
Show me I'm

Looking for a reason, roaming through the night
To find my place in this world, my place in this world
Not a lot to lean on, I need Your light to help me
Find my place in this world, my place in this world

Looking for a reason, roaming through the night
To find my place in this world, my place in this world
Not a lot to lean on, I need Your light to help me
Find my place in this world, my place in this world

Looking for a reason, roaming through the night
To find my place in this world, my place in this world
Not a lot to lean on, I need Your light to help me
Find my place in this world, my place in this world
