I've seen that look a million times
Disenchanted eyes
You don't have to say a word
I know it's love you doubt, but you're lost without it

You hope for one glimpse of heaven
You pray for a sign
But I know where all is forgiven
Let's go where we know love is alive

This love can change a life forever
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love
Oh, this love, oh yeah

It's nothing that we could ever earn
It's unconditional, yeah
It's free because cost Him everything
It's His love we need
And it's our road to freedom

So don't underestimate God's love
It's power to heal
Come take a drink from the fountain
Let's go where we know love is alive

This love can change a life forever
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love

This love can change us for the better
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love

Let go where we know
Let go where we know love is alive, alive

This love can change a life forever
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah

His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love

This love can change us for the better
The only way to start, is giving Him our hearts, yeah
His love will piece us back together
This is the way, this is the life, this love

This love
This love
This love
This love
This love
This is the way
This love
