

Aphrodite's Child

"Break"

Visit "Break" on MotoLyrics.com

Bye bye, my friend, goodbye
With a lie
you forget and break it

You make it
You make it
You make it
You make it

Cry in my empty room
and we try to forget and break it

Fly
high and then
you make it

[interlude]

Bye bye, my friend, goodbye
With a lie
you forget and break it

You make it
You make it
You make it
You make it

Do it!

(As about the syllables you hear, it is Vangelis' voice,
"answering" to Lucas by the jazz doo-wap technique:
"stoobeedooobedoo..." and so on.
It was Vangelis way of making fun to the song.)
