Hey you
You always stand in my way
You
will you hear to what I say?
I want you to go away

You
You should find another man

I say you make my face become one
I want you to cut it down

You, you, you
get away
I can't stand you,
you, you
I am mad when I see you
you, you you
better hide or clutch your face

You
you come on and change your mind

Say you You're the one I must cement and what if I don't want you

You
You always stand in my way

And I said you
Will you hear to what I say
And I want you to go away

You you, you
get away
I can't stand you,
you you
I am mad when I see you
You, you better pack up all your things and I, I, I feel like chewing so I'm getting mad, baby

And I said you
you, you always stand in my way (better not)

You
will you hear to what I say
I want you to go away

you should find another man I said you
make my face become one

you, you, you got a way I can't stand you you, you, you
get away
I can't stand

you
You you you better hide and clutch your face
And I, I, I feel it
You better say
you, you, you
