There is something in the way
You are always somewhere else
Feelings have deserted me
To a point of no return
I don't believe in God
But I pray for you

Don't you slip away from me
It's you I live for
Oh don't you leave, no
Don't you slip away from me
I'm vulnerable to your love

There is something in the way
You are always somewhere else
Feelings have deserted me
To a point of no return
So the light fades out
And you're so close to loose it

Don't you slip away from me
It's you I live for
Oh don't you leave, no
Don't you slip away from me
I'm vulnerable to your love

Don't you slip away from me
It's you I live my life for
Oh don't leave
Don't you slip away from me
I'm vulnerable to your love

Don't you slip away...
