The sun went down so long ago
I watched you cry, I had to go
Forever only lasted just a day

And now without you by my side
The visions of a lonely life
Take me to a dream
In a place so far away

I see an angel and I think of you
I watch her hide behind a smile
And then I think of what I have to do
If only I had listened for a while

I still believe, I still believe
A love so strong will carry on
You know there's so much to be seen

I still believe, I still believe
It's not the end, let's start again
I still believe

The emptiness of what could be
Shows everything you mean to me
It started out a game I'd never played

If I defy the foolish pride
And find that place so deep inside
Take me to my dream
I know I have to stay

I see a rainbow and I think of you
Of what we had, of what we were
And then I think of what I have to do
If only I had listened for a while

I still believe, I still believe
A love so strong will carry on
You know there's so much to be seen

I still believe, I still believe
It's not the end, let's start again

I still believe

Everybody's always asking me why
Why I did what I did to make you cry
Please believe me when I say what I say
I didn't mean to go away, at the time I couldn't stay

I see an angel and she sees me too
And as she wipes a teary eye
I know exactly what I have to do
To start a new beginning in my life

I still believe, I still believe
A love so strong will carry on
You know there's so much to be seen

I still believe, I still believe
It's not the end, let's start again
I still believe

You know I still believe
It's not the end, let's start again
I still believe
