Could be your eyes, could be your smile
Could be the way you freed my mind
Your precious touch caressed my soul
You gave me everything I need
And now I'm lost, lost forever

Lost forever and you said, this is going nowhere, girl
And you said, I turned my back on
You said, I'm not the only one for you

Please give it one more try for the sake of our love
Let's give it one more chance 'cause I can't give you up
I can't live one more day without you in my arms
I could never find another like you

Could be the lies, could be my pride
Could be the days and nights so wild
Could be the times I wasn't there
And all the nights we didn't share
And now you're lost, lost forever

Lost forever and you said this is going nowhere, girl
And you said, I turned my back on
You said, I'm not the only one for you

Please give it one more try for the sake of our love
Let's give it one more chance 'cause I can't give you up
I can't live one more day without you in my arms
I could never find another like you

I can't sleep, I can't live without you by my side
So cold, so lost without you as my guide
You made me realize I'm nothing
Nothing without you

Please give it one more try for the sake of our love
Let's give it one more chance 'cause I can't give you up
I can't live one more day without you in my arms
I could never find another like you
