See them crawling,
Begging for more,
In need of money,
Robbing a store.

See those addicted,
Betraying each other,
Selling their grandma,
Stealing from their father.

Come to me - I'm the king of dealers,
Come to me - and we'll find a way,
Come to me - because I have what you need,
Come to me - if you are able to pay!

They start with the light drugs,
Sold in the schools,
And think they can stop it,
This pack of fools.

Once I have you in my hand,
This sweet dream of a neverland,
Will turn into a nightmare,
Which will never end.

Come to me - I'm the king of dealers,
Come to me - and we'll find a way,
Come to me - because I have what you need,
Come to me - if you are able to pay!
