Yeah yeah

I need time on my own
It's nothing personal
I just need to be free
Gimme room to breathe
And get to know me
I promise it's not what it seems

I'm going through changes
Everything is rearranging
Every time I turn around
There's something knew to me

And maybe it's changing
A little too complicated
The words, they never come out
When I say I love you
I know I'm crazy
But baby, your love can save me
I'm so unpredictable
But baby, I'm yours

I know what people say
When I walk away
But it's between you and me
My feelings need to change
It's too easy to see
I just need some space (Some space)

I'm going through changes (Changes)
Everything is rearranging
Every time I turn around (Oh yeah)
There's something knew to me

And maybe it's changing
A little too complicated
The words, they never come out
When I say I love you
I know that I'm crazy
But baby your love can save me

I'm so unpredictable
But baby, I'm yours

I'm yours baby
Your all I need
Can't get enough of you loving me
I'm yours baby
Your all I need
You've got to holding on to me
Keep on holding to me
It's so right
The way you love me

And maybe it's changing
A little too complicated
The words, they never come out
When I say I love you (you)

And maybe it's changing (Oh yeah, yeah)
A little too complicated
The words, they never come out (Never come out)
When I say I love you (Ooooh ooh)
I know that I'm crazy (So crazy)
But baby your love can save me
I'm so unpredictable
But baby, I'm yours

(And maybe it's changing)
(A little too complicated)
The words, they never come out
When I say I love you (I love you)
I know that I'm crazy (You know)
But baby your love can save me
I'm so unpredictable (Ohhhhhhh)
But baby, I'm yours
