Please,
I beg you for my life,
For true love waits,
You see I must survive,
Good nite, sleep well,
(I've got work to do)
I'll probably kill you in the morning.

But for tonite
(Please)
I beg you for life,
For true love waits,
You see I must survive,
Good nite, sleep well,
I'll probably kill you in the morning,
But for tonight...

As you wish,
Hearts and candy glitter and gold, is what
I'm dreamin' of.
As you wish,
Reeses peanut butter cup, is what
I'm waitin' for,
As you wish,
Certainly upon my return, my love won't be ignored.

To the vein,
First I'll cut your feet of and then, the hands
Above your arms.
To the vein,
Next you'll lose your eyes, it goes, every thing,
It has to go.
To the vein,
Except your ears, you wanna hear people scream:
"Dear God what is that thing?"
