I am not the lamb, I am not Jesus
I am not ready to sacrifice my innocence
I am not ready to talk to you about politics
I am not ready to taste your corruption

I don't want your money
Or your fame and fortune
No, you mean nothing to me
I don't need you

I know you look at me and say
Here's something I can use, abuse
But I'm not going for it, I'm innocent and I'm young
But I'm not so naive that I'd fall for it

I don't want your money
Or your record contract
Fame and fortune, no

You can keep them
I don't need the money that you want to give me
Want to use me, no

Don't look to me to be your Jesus Christ
I'm not here for your superficial sacrifice
Want to use my youth and my innocence
Trying to make a fool of me are you?

You never get me
You'll never use me
I'll never be a martyr for you
No, it's not worth it

Won't spill my blood for you
I don't need you, I don't want you
I don't want you
I'm no martyr for you
