All their suppressing and their hiding
Have you ever realized it corrupts your mind so deep inside?
If you're passive you're trapped in their spiral Faith mystifying to control everything you know.. you'll ever know

All of these wars that you're fighting
Have you ever realized they're constructed just to hold back your mind?
Just be ready to give a denial
You can be master of everything you do.. you'll ever do

So free what you've never allowed to grow (It's all in your mind) Refuse their fictitious constructions (It's all in your mind)
So scream, there's a world they won't let you know (It's all in your mind)
Be free rediscover your instincts (It's all in your mind)

So free what you've never allowed to grow (It's all in
your mind) Refuse their fictitious constructions (It's all in your mind)
So scream, there's a world they won't let you know (It's all in your mind)
Be free rediscover your instincts (It's all in your mind)

You're free, rediscover your instincts (riscopri i tuoi istinti)
