My whole life has changed in a single second.
Flash.
Just like that.
My senses have left me. Yeah...
It's hard to face (to face)
The reality of life.

Got knocked down from a cloud so high.
Living in a fast paced dream.
Now I'm livin' life in slow motion.
Everyone is going so fast.
Growing so fast.
Faster than they need.
If you looked inside of me,
You would see a burning picture
Of how life used to be.

Filled myself with so much distance,
No one can reach me anymore...
