heard the shots and ran outside finally we're where he died sheriff came over and took off his hat kept asking me "boy where's your mother at?"

saw his body into the hearse interrogation blew my crown i cussed and spat and kicked and cursed what's it matter if the story's true could not protect him they already knew daddy wore black, daddy had guns daddy rode a cadillac and daddy sold drugs there ain't no right and there ain't no wrong you can choose daddy wore black and now i'm wearing black too no matter who i am or what i do is there someone you can call use the pay phone against the wall we can make it hard on you my friend we can send you where your daddy went

daddy rode a cadillac and daddy sold drugs
you can choose

though your heart is young and strong nothing good lasts very long we buried the man we carried so we do for ours just like ya done for yours

daddy rode a cadillac and daddy sold drugs
you can choose

daddy wore black daddy got guns daddy got soul

and now i'm wearing black
and now i'm wearing black too
