

Arden

"A Slow Spiral Geoffrey"

Visit "A Slow Spiral Geoffrey" on MotoLyrics.com

Hey man on the corner by the liquor store with a sign
In hand and he's begging for the change that you can spare
And hey man life is really not that bad just look around And realize that everything you need is floating in the air

You say it's too late
You've thrown your life away
I say you're afraid
Of every little change

Oh no Geoffrey what have you done with your life it seems
A pill infested life is a life you chose to lead oh
And oh no Geoffrey time is passing by and what's to show
From the alcohol and medication that you can't let go

You say it's too late
You've thrown your life away
I say you're afraid
Of every little change
The world will throw your way
It's always hard to make it through your day
But I know you'll be okay

You always tell me you're only happy half of the time
Well look at me man yea I'm doing fine and feelin' alright

You say it's too late
You've thrown your life away
I say you're afraid
Of every little change
The world will throw your way
It's always hard to make it through your day
But I know you'll be okay

Visit Arden page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

